The grid consists of five columns corresponding to the days of the week and five rows. The background color of the grid transitions from a light green at the top to a dark green at the bottom. Each cell in the grid is defined by vertical dotted lines. On the left side of the grid, there is a vertical bar with a color gradient from purple at the top to light pink at the bottom, divided into five horizontal segments. At the top and bottom of the grid, there are small white circles marking the start and end of each column.
